

◆

Logging into your Joomla site allows you to make changes to the content. You can access the Administrator section of your site by using the following:

http://[your domain name.com.au]/administrator

Your webmaster will have provided you with a username and password for logging into the Administration area.

◆